FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ROY RECEIVES HONORABLE MENTION IN PHI BETA KAPPA ESSAY COMPETITION

CHARLESTON -- Amanda Roy of Windsor received honorable mention in the 1994 Phi Beta Kappa Young Scholar Award essay competition.

Roy received the honor at the Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association of East Central Illinois' seventh annual spring banquet held recently at Eastern Illinois University.

To enter the competition, students submitted a letter of nomination by their principal, a letter of support from a teacher and a 500-word essay on one of three topics. Roy wrote on "Torey Hayden: An Author Whose Books Have Helped Me See Something in a New Way."

Frank McCormick, professor of English at EIU and president of the Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association of East Central Illinois, presented the awards.
